LOCAL AGENTS.—We desire to secure the services of some reliable person as Agent for our paper, in every town and township of this and adjoining counties. Any one willing to accept an agency, or knowing of any other person who would be, will confer a favor by immediately addressing us. We will compensate Agents to their entire satisfaction.

JOHN WORK.—Our facilities for doing Job Work have never been equalled in Champaign Co. All our materials are 'brand new'; we print on good paper, with book ink; and we flatter ourselves that we can get up a bill, circular, or anything else, in better style than any other printing office in this section of country. Give us your orders, and we will prove what we have said.

READ ALL THE ADVERTISEMENTS. We publish none but those which are worthy your attention and perusal.

THE Old Chief of the Miami, Herman Fisher, No. 1 Miami street, is in readiness to serve all his old customers and all new ones in his agreeable manner, with men's and boys' clothing of the latest styles and at the lowest prices. "Drop in," and satisfy yourself—at least Fisher will satisfy you, we know.

FOR SALE.—A Washington Hand Press—size of plate, 24 by 37. The Press is complete, and in good order. Will be sold cheap, if applied for soon.

THE Sixty-Sixth is at New Market, Va.

Why is the 71st Ohio regiment unlike a choolmaster? Because it can spare the Rod!

THE Young Americans were "out" Monday evening with their fine engine, to the interest of all spectators.

REV. EMERSON KIMBLE, chaplain of the 26th Ohio, arrived home last evening. He reports the regiment in good condition.

DECATUR COURT was in session Friday and Saturday—Judge Scott, of the Supreme Court, and Judges Smith and Meeker, of the Common Pleas Court, presiding.

ASD be said, "Dearest May, in the merry month of May we may be married, mayn't we?"

AND they Mayn't.

W. W. VANCE, leader of the 66th Band, left for the Regiment Tuesday morning. Mr. V. purchased in Cincinnati, and took with him, a full set of new German silver cornet instruments for his band.

MRS. MARGARET SEER, wife of David Seer, one of the old citizens of Urbana, died on Friday last. Mrs. Seer was highly respected by all who knew her as an amiable and Christian woman. The large funeral on Sunday indicated the esteem of our citizens for the deceased.

A cool chilly rain has "come to hand" today (Tuesday), and it doesn't seem so much like May as might. We hope it may soon May again.

—Wednesday—we have no pressing need of the old street sprinkler! Heaven has blessed the farmer and the dust-choked town-people with a bounteous rain.

THOSE wishing Parson Brownlow's Book, which will be the most interesting book of the year to the people of the United States, must hand in their names at once, if they wish copies of the early, first edition. We shall order the last of this week.

ON Sabbath last, Rev. John C. Bonham, Pastor of the Baptist Church, preached for the first time since the casualty which befell him last fall. Although unable to stand, Mr. Bonham preached with his wonted vigor, and delivered a very fruitful and instructive discourse. Mr. Bonham expects to preach again, next Sabbath.

OUR young friend Oliver P. Taylor, of West Liberty, a member of Baird's company, 66th Regiment, is now at home on furlough—having been wounded by a Union soldier. O. was standing picket when some skirmishes of a New York Regiment came up, and in the surprise of the moment one, unfortunately, shot him in the shoulder. He is fast recovering from the wound.

SOLDIERS AID.—The Ladies of Urbana who compose the Society for extending aid to the sick and wounded soldiers have sought to have collections made in the churches. On Sunday last the Rev. J. T. Eaton gave notice at the New Jerusalem Church in Urbana of a collection to be taken at that place on Sunday next. We have been furnished with a copy of the beautiful and appropriate notice on this occasion which we append.

"I am happy to say to the congregation, on behalf of the Ladies' Aid Society, that a collection for the relief of sick and wounded soldiers, is being made in the several congregations of this Village, and that the same good work is requested of us. In order that all may be duly notified, and come prepared to contribute to so worthy an object, it is desired that notice should be given on the Sunday previous to the collection being made. I would therefore earnestly recommend to this congregation as the request of the Ladies' Aid Society, that, on Sunday next, we contribute to the relief of sick and wounded soldiers."

"Every one according as he purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver." The boxes at the door of the Hall will afford a suitable opportunity, unless another method should be preferred. I beg to concur in this request, therefore, most heartily and earnestly, and hope it will be cheerfully and liberally responded to on Sunday next. The object is one that appeals to every generous heart, and has claims which all should be happy to acknowledge. It is an opportunity for every one to share in affording relief to those whose sufferings are bound to last; every one, I say, whether he can give little or much. If the boxes are too high for some of the children to reach, let them remember to get the taller ones to put in their mites for them. At any rate, let us all remember the sick and wounded soldiers, and cheerfully bear our part with the Ladies' Aid Society, by liberally contributing for their relief on Sunday next.

Only one dollar a year for the Union.

Dog Law.

We publish below a law passed at the session of the Legislature of Ohio "to raise revenue, protect sheep and confiscate dogs." The word confiscate seems to be used in the new, Congressional sense to destroy. We have not beset the County Auditor for leave to print this law, and we do not expect to be allowed 118 Dollars and 80 cents for buying some hand bills at Cleveland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That it shall be the duty of each and every person owning a dog or dogs, or keeping, or harboring one or more, to list the same for taxation as other property is listed, and to give to the assessor the true value of such dog or dogs; but persons so listing such dogs need not make oath to such value.

SAC. 2. That the assessor shall receive the value so fixed by the owner, keeper, or harbinger of said dog or dogs, at the true value.

SAC. 3. That any dog not so listed for taxation, shall be deemed and taken as a common nuisance, and any person is hereby authorized to capture, kill, or confiscate the same; and if any person shall kill, wound, or destroy any dog so listed as aforesaid, for taxation, the person so killing, wounding, or destroying the same, shall be liable, in damages, to the owner, keeper, or harbinger of such dog in any amount greater than that for which said dog was listed for taxation.

SAC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of May, 1902.

JAMES R. HUBBELL, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

B. STANTON, President of the Senate.

THE SPRING RACES.—The three days' races at Nutwood Course, Jennings & Woodman, Proprietors, drew a large crowd to Urbana last week. Sporting men were present from all parts of Ohio, and the neighboring States. We give a summary of the races:

FIRST DAY.

Dash of half-a-mile for fifty dollars between Read's filly, Bonnie Scotland and Wilson's colt, Mickey Free—Mickey Free winning by fifteen feet; time, fifty-nine seconds.

Great match race between California mare, Comet and Id. May of Albany, N. Y. Dash of 480 yards—which resulted in a draw.

SECOND DAY.

Trotting, mile heats, best three in five, for proprietors' purse of $50.

Olmedast entered b. h. Clinton.

Jennings entered b. h. Mero.

Clinton winning in three heats. Time—2:45; 2:53; 2:50.

Pacing, mile heats, best two in three, for proprietors' purse of $50.

Stout entered s. g. Coon.

Johnson entered b. m. Kate.

Gispies entered two animals.

Won by Coon in two heats. Time—2:43; 2:46.

THIRD DAY.

Running, mile heat, for proprietors' purse of $50.

Reed entered b. f. Belle.

Wilson entered b. f. Mickey Free.

Jennings entered a. c. Dunblon.

Vance entered s. c. Tarpelon.

Belle winning the race easily—distancing the field.

Match race between Comet and Id. May—dash of 350 yards for $500. Comet won by fourteen feet.

MONDAY.

Match race between Reed's b. f. Belle and Adams' d. h. Janus—dash of 600 yards. Janus winning by twenty feet. Time, thirty-five seconds.

ASY lady possessing property and good sense will wear long dresses. Those women who will a sort of low pendulum swing in walking, and wear dresses' just long enough to display ugly feet and ankles look remarkably graceful! The hoop skirt fashion is abominable for full grown women unless they wear long dresses. We are pleased to see a woman do as she pleases if she pleases to dress as a sensible and modest lady should.

MAY is and has been with us in her gayest, most coquettish style. The "accompaniments" of air and dust are "two numerous" perhaps—yet, we believe the latter is to teach us that the old street sprinkler is a necessity; while of the former, as May is our land's most month, why shouldn't she put on "airs"? Every one seems in a cheerful mood—the atmosphere is so balmy and congenial to the "taste" of the inhale—while Pickayune Butlers in Orleans—the Merrimack's blown up—Little Mac is "going up" higher and higher in the estimation of the people—Lincoln and not Hunter is President—the war news are pleasant to take, generally—and to crown all, no one lost any money on the first day's horse race!

We might go into ecstasies about Urbana being adorned with buds and blossoms and pretty girls, but as we have received none—we mean the buds and blossoms!—we'll be adorned if we do any such adorned thing!

—Nary ecstasy until—to be continued.

TRAIN'S Union Speeches have just been published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, and were delivered by George Francis Train, in England, during the present American War, where he has been doing good service to the Union cause ever since the outbreak of the rebellion. These speeches should be read by his countrymen with as great interest and profit, as they were listened to by the English of all classes, who crowded the places of public assembly whenever he was announced for a speech. They will be found to be patriotic, truth-telling, and amusing. The wit, invective, argument, and general "smartness" of Mr. Train; have all been aroused in defence of the Union. In England he has nobly confronted exile Secessionists and prejudiced Englishmen, who hated our Republican institutions. His speeches are full of fire and pure Union sentiments, and a perusal of them will be enjoyed by every true and loyal American. We may safely predict their success in a collected and cheap form. Mr. Train's eloquence is entirely new and general—the founder of the spread eagle school of oratory and it may truly be said, "none but himself can be his parallel." He has done good service to the Union cause by his ability, loyalty, and boldness, and these speeches should be read by every person in the land. Price Twenty-five cents a copy only, or five copies for One Dollar, and sent to any one, by place, free of postage, on remitting that amount to the publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa.

The March to Strasburg.

The following was received by a citizen of Urbana who has handed it to us for publication:

STRASBURG, VA., April 24th, 1862.

SIR:—Below you will find a description of the march of the 66th Ohio from Winchester to Strasburg which will, I think, be interesting to the people of Urbana and vicinity:

On April 24th, so people say, which was a rainy, cloudy day, The 66th march took up For Strasburg—of water, a cup In their canteens—for Strasburg small, Which from Winchester court house tall Is eighteen miles, I think not more, At least so told me persons four.

As we were marching down the street Of Winchester, not very fleet, The Band struck up a cheering tune Which exiled gloomy feelings soon, Inspiring our noble crew

In number many, not a few. Around, on either side the street The echoes moved their ugly feet, No doubt looking in contempt great Upon that standard which of late Waved over Donelson on high, Beneath the canopy, azure sky! Yes, still continues there to wave, And shall till "hell" is in its grave.

By hell I mean that traitor band Which in this our glorious land, Have raised their vile arms on high, By Davis, sworn to live, or die. Our road to rebel Strasburg led Through a fair valley, watered By many cool and sparkling fountains, Supplied by water from the mountains, Which in the distance towered high Towards the calm and azure sky! The first village through which passed we, Was Keenstown which appeared to me To be a town of no great note, In which the people's looks denote That they are Seesh on out and out; Have of their arm's success no doubt.

The second and third towns we passed thro' Were Newtown, not fair to view, And Middletown where 'Lincoln's' are, I am inclined to think, quite rare. We halted on the 5th at night, Near Cedar Creek, of it is sight; Near Cedar Creek which is miles three From Strasburg, so one man told me. We on the 6th our march resumed And reached Strasburg, it is presumed, About or near the hour of ten, Having on the march lost no men!

A MEMBER OF CO. A, 66TH REGIMENT.

Atlantic and Great Western Railroad.

One of the most important enterprises, to the prosperity of this city, ever projected is now in a fair way to be carried rapidly forward to a successful completion. The difficulties, originating partly with the Trent affair, to the pushing forward of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad have been removed, and the contractors are prepared to build it as rapidly as labor can be accumulated for that purpose. Arrangements have been made to put it once six thousand men at work upon the track, and the Chief Engineer, Mr. T. W. Kennard of London, has purchased during the past two weeks all the equipment needed for working the Road, including thirty locomotives. The Road at present is completed and in operation, from Salamanca the junction with the Erie Road, 46 miles from Dunkirk to Corry on the Erie and Sunbury Road. It there reaches the oil regions, and the freight on oil alone, brought twenty-five miles to the depot in wagons, is now $5,700 per week. When the branch is completed from Corry to Titusville, the depot of the oil region, this amount, it is believed, will be increased to $15,000 per week.

The road will reach Meadville by the 1st of July, and Akron, Ohio, by the 1st of October, making two hundred miles from the Erie Junction. For the line to Akron the money and materials have all been provided. Beyond this, the road will be extended to Dayton, Ohio, and from Dayton to Cincinnati an arrangement has been made with the Dayton and Cincinnati Road to lay a third rail.

At Cincinnati the Great Western connects with the Ohio and Mississippi Road, which is of six feet gauge. Thus, when the whole line is finished, which will probably be within two years, New York will possess a new six feet gauge connection by rail direct with St. Louis, by which the products of the West, loaded at St. Louis, can be transported without breaking bulk to the Long Dock at Hoboken, and discharged into vessels for shipment to Europe.

At Warren or Ravenna a connection will be made with Cleveland, which will tap the Western traffic at that point, and all along the line lateral feeders are already built, which will swell the business of the Atlantic and Great Western. The principal parties in this enterprise are the great barbers Salamanca of Madrid, the Duke de Rianares, husband of the Queen Dowager of Spain; Messrs. James Ward, Kennards & Co. of London, Hay McHenry of Liverpool, Sir Morton Peto, M. P., and Ed. Betts of London, and Messrs. Saml. Hallett & Co. of New York. The Chief Engineer of the work is T. W. Kennard, Esq. of London.

The Company are very fortunate in their American connection. Messrs. Samuel Hallett & Co., are a vigorous and enterprising firm, and yield great money facilities. Mr. Hallett has been connected with this project from its inception, and a large portion of the success it has met with is due to his personal exertions. To the Erie Road, this new feeder, stretching its arms across half a continent to seize the traffic of the West and throw it into the lap of New York, will prove of incalculable value. When the line is completed to St. Louis, we shall not be surprised to see the Erie Road earning ten or twelve millions of dollars per annum.—N. Y. Tribune.

An official dispatch from General McClellan, dated on Saturday, states that a combined naval and land expedition up the Pamunkey river had succeeded in compelling the rebels to burn two steamers and twenty sailing vessels. Our troops are cautiously advancing.

A despatch from the correspondent of the Associated Press states that on Saturday our advance drove the enemy across the Pamunkey. Our Cairo dispatch says that it is rumored that Beauregard has left Bragg in command at Corinth, and gone to Virginia, to endeavor to rally the disorganized rebels.

A negro pilot, thoroughly acquainted with the intricate channels of the South Carolina coast, has arrived at Port Royal with a rebel steam tug which he escaped from Charleston.

GENERAL HUNTER'S emancipation proclamation has been published in the Charleston papers and danger of a negro insurrection is reported. Our troops have possession of part of the railroad line between Charleston and Savannah, and an attack will soon be made on the latter city.
